Constantinople, May 23.
DVICES from Bassora of the 24th of January inform us, that the Cheaia of Solyman Pascha arrived there with a very large Body of Soldiers to bring that City under entire Subjection, as most of the Inhabitants sided with the Captain Place, but the Captain Pascha, his Family and many ends, went on Board the Gallies, and rowed off down the ver The Mutzolem foon followed him on board a Dutch then there, with many Soldiers, and took his Harem, puty, Secretary, and 13 other of his Officers Prisoners, e of whom were foon beheaded; and the rest, with the omen, were fent to Bagdat. The Captain Pascha, with me few People, escaped to Bendar Bushoor. After this cees, the Cheaia put the City under excessive high Contriby Advice from Bassora of the 7th of March we are inmed, that the Affairs of the Kingdom of Persia are in worse Condition that ever, having at present no less than competitors for the Throne: The very best Accounts ure us, that the ancient Lores, or Bactrians, who plundered ahan, have made a great Progress in their Conquests; and young Man they have fet up for King, being of the old induced the People of Shyrafs to deliver their City into Hands without Resistance; notwithstanding which, the ce was instantly in the utmost Confusion, and all the People ried into Slavery. The Credit of this Acquisition has oc-ioned all the wild Tribes in Zarce, or the Hot Countries, follow their Fortune, more for the Sake of Plunder than real Defign to affift them. It was imagined Jaroom Dob, and Ireifau, would have made a bold Stand, but they ve all submitted themselves to Slavery, for the Lores make Distinction between Force or voluntary Submission. Lore, ich is one of the Chief Cities, and all those Parts of the ngdom, are in the utmost Consternation; and as the ill eatment the English Gentlemen met with at Spahan, left m no room to hope for Favour or Mercy, both they and Dutch came to a firm Resolution to leave Gombroon, and no doubt but that they have done so before now, so that ir grand Scheme of Plundering the two European Factories, ere they imagined half the Wealth of Persia was contained, prove Abortive. Infhatt, and the Carassan Parts, are in as bad a Situation, by the daily Inroads of the hooons, Tartars, and other wild Neighbours, having no to protect them, for Sharoowke Shah is certainly Blind, defixute of Money, and consequently without Friends, so the Kingdom of Persia is in a most deplorable Condition.

ITALY.

Rome, June 19. They write from Gemini, that the 11th tant in the Night, three Shocks of an Earthquake were felt re, as also at Castelnuovo, Torni and Narni, which threw Inhabitants into such a Consternation, that most of them into the Fields: Several Houses were thrown down, and ers very much damaged.

SPAIN. Madrid, June 15. According to some fresh Advices from a, there has been a fecond Revolt at Peru, excited by some ains who had carried Things to too great Lengths to hope Pardon, and having got together a great Number of Rebels he amount of some Hundreds, committed the greatest Outs and Murders, till being overcome, they were obliged to to the Mountains, where they must perish with Hunger Misery. The Revolt raised in the Caraccas against the mpany of Guypuscoa, seems to be quite quell'd, and would e been so much sooner, if some private Persons, who had Interest in the Demolition of the Company, had not coned the Ferment, by News which they sent from Spain, of whom have lately been taken up in this City.

Canterbury, June 17. Yesterday Died, after a Series of many Months Pain, the Wife of one Highland, a Labourer, on Iden Green, in the Parish of Benenden, who had been with Child for two Years and a Quarter; and on the 19th her Body was open'd by Mr. James Beckett, of Cranbrook, and William Lott, of Tenterden, Men-Midwives: What was very remarkable in this Case is, after they had made Incission through the Peritonæum, the Fœtus presented, quite denudated, it having, contrary to Nature, perforated its way entirely through the Fundus Uteri, without having any the least Appearance either of Placenta, vel Funis Umbilicalis. 'Tis supposed that the Fœtus had been in this Situation upwards of eighteen Months.

L O N D O N, July 2.

We learn from Stockholm, that in the several dreadful Fires that lately happened in that Capital, no less than one thousand Houses have been reduced to Ashes. 'The King's Letters Patents have been issued, dated the 25th of June, fixing the Opening of the General Dyet of the States for the 27th of

Yesterday, Abraham Castres, Esq; Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Lisbon, arrived here, at his House in Park

An Affair of a very fingular Nature happened last Week, the Relation of which may not perhaps be disagreeable to our Readers, as it is founded on Fact.—— A young Fellow of a genteel Employment, not far from Bloomsbury, had for some ime paid his Addresses to a Maid Servant of the same Neighbourhood, (a Girl of personal Charms and genteel Education) under the Colour of honourable Love; she had very prudently declar'd to him on the first or second Visit, that she did not think herself by any Means a Match for him, in Point of Circumstances, and therefore begg'd he would desist from future Visits; but the Gentleman solemnly protesting that his Love was disinterested, and that the Charms of her Mind and Person, were an Over-ballance for the Want of Fortune, she eafily believed him, and received his Addresses with Pleasure. The Joys of innocent Courtship continued uninterrupted till one Day lat Week, when this honourable Professor of difinterested Love, made an Attempt on her Virtue, which she had Courage and Chastity enough to oppose, and forbid him the House. Here possibly our Story might have ended, had it not reach'd the Ears of the young Woman, that her faithless Lover had talk'd of the villainous Purpose of his Visits among all his Acquaintance; upon this Information she procur'd two small Swords, and fent to speak with him, he readily obey'd the Summons, thinking that her Mind was alter'd in his Favour, when upon his Entrance, she presented him with a Sword and took the other herfelf, and addressed him in a Speech, which concluded with observing that her Virtue was much dearer to her than Life, and that she wou'd now convince him of it. But our Hero, instead of accepting the Challenge, threw down his Sword, and smeak'd off, muttering something in Imitation of a Joke, faid that she was a Squeamish B—&c. &c. and not worth a Gentleman's Notice.

They write from Placentia, that Cardinal Alberoni has disposed of the Capital Sum of 3,000,000 of Ducats which he had in the Banks of England and Holland, in order to retrieve their Commerce which was at a Stand.

Saturday last a Person who was Tutor to a Gentleman in Lincoln's Inn Fields, immediately after Dinner came out to the Court facing the Street Door, and in the most deliberate Manner, unbuttoning his Waistcoat, gave himself a desperate Stab in the Belly, by which his Bowels gushed cut. The Cause of this rash Action is not yet known.

Last Sunday Morning died at his House in Bedford-Row, after a few Days Illness, Paul Joddrell, Esq; Sollicitor to his late Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

The Cricket-Match at Newmarket was won on Tuesday by All Engl nd, on Thursday by the Eaton Society, and on Saturday again by All England.

Amongst the many Instances that have been mentioned in the publick Papers of the Frauds, Cheats, and Robberies of the Gang of Thieves and Gamblers that Infest the Roads to Pancras, Islington, &c. the following, which happened to a Gentleman a few Days ago, is the most extraordinary. Near the former Place he saw a Man sitting upon a Gate dressed like a Clergyman, with a Book in his Hand, as if reading, and another Person coming towards him well dressed in Mourning, who immediately pulled off his Hat to the Gentleman, and said, 'Sir, I believe that you have forgot me; but, if you remember, you laid me a Wager of Five Guineas last Year at Newmarker, and perhaps it has fince slipt your Memory.' 'Indeed, Sir, (iays the Gentleman) you are mistaken, for I never was at Newmarket in my Life.' Upon which he waved his Hand, and another Person-well-dressed ikewise came up, and upon being ask'd by his Friend, said, he remember'd the Gentleman very well, and his laying the Bett. The Gentleman protested as above: Upon which two more came up; when the Gentleman thought it prudent to fay, he thought he did remember something of the Matter, and immediately pulled out five Guineas and gave to them.

Upon which they went off, swearing, that if he had not recollected himself, he should have had his Bones broke.

DUBLIN.

Last Week died Laurence Clutterbuck, of Durryleskan in the County of Tipperary, Esq; a Gentleman of universal go od Character, and whose Death is a great loss to the Public being one of the greatest Improvers in that Country.

Last Wednesday William Monsell, of Tirvoe, Esq; was married to Miss Dimphna Perry, of Limerick, a very agreeable young Lady, with great Accomplishments, and 1500l. Fortune.

Łaif Friday Night about 12 o'Clock, as Mr. Nicholfon, an Apothecary in Charles-streer, and another Gentleman, were coming by Lord Mornington's House in Graston-street, they were attacked by two Fellows, who immediately prefented Pistols to their Breasts, ordering them to deliver; but the Gentlemen instead of complying, called out Watch! Upon which the Villains immediately snapt their Pistols, one of which burnt priming, but neither went off: Mr. Nicholfon feized one of the rellows, and had him conducted to the Watch-house in College green, and from thence to New gate; the other Fellow ran away, before Affistance could be had to secure him. It was very fortunate for the Gentlemen that the ?iftols did not go off, as they must certainly have been killed if they had, they being quite clean, with new Flints, and loaded with Slugs. It is supposed, the Watchmen on the Stands, and in the Watch-house, were taking their Evening Naps; for tho' the Gentlemen called fo loud, that they awaked a Man in an adjoining Street, who ran to their Relief in his Shirt, none of the Watchmen thought proper to stir.

Last Saturday Mr. Sweetman, was married to Miss Strong Daughter of Mr. Strong, Brewer, in Thomas-Street, a very agreeable young Lady, with a good Fortune. The Privilege for franking Letters will come in on Thurfday the 18th Init. the Parliament being prorogued to Tuesday
